JOHN KENNEY THE GAZETTE

This photo published in last Sunday's edition gave a good feel for the mood at the April 28 Daffodil Ball, reader Sharon Cohen says.

He has captured, and your new presses have faithfully reproduced, the element of fantasy associated with the annual Daffodil Ball, always a highlight of the Montreal social calendar.

The light and decor in the Windsor Station venue, and the elegance of the guests, could have been from a canvas by Lautrec or Monet, or a scene from Paris in the 1920s. What a visual treat!
